

National EMN Conference Sweden 2019

“Attracting and Welcoming International Students”

Stockholm, 8 May 2019

What makes a country an attractive destination for international students? This is the central question we aim to address at this event. The conference, which is closely linked to a recent EMN study on international students, will highlight policies and practices of attracting and welcoming students from non-EU countries. To what extent and how international students are encouraged to remain will also be discussed. While the focus of the conference is on the national and local level in Sweden, the event will also include a comparative European perspective, and we aim to look into laws and policies, administrative practices regarding residence permits, as well as scholarships and exchange programmes, among other issues, including international students’ experiences in Sweden.

Date and time: Wednesday, 8 May 2019, 08:30 – 16:00

Venue: Radisson Blu Royal Viking Hotel, Vasagatan 1, Stockholm City

The Conference will be held in English. Participation including lunch and coffee breaks is free of charge.

The number of available places is limited, please register by sending an email to nathalie.blad@migrationsverket.se on 5 April 2019 at the latest. Places will be allocated on a ‘first come, first served’ basis. In the email, please state your name, organisation, country, email address and whether you have any special dietary requirements.

If you have any questions, please contact the Swedish EMN team at emn@migrationsverket.se

Welcome!

Preliminary programme, 8 May 2019

Moderators: Marie Bengtsson and Bernd Parusel, Swedish Migration Agency

08:30 - 09:30	Arrival and registration of participants, coffee
09:30 - 11:00	Welcome	Susanne Jerkenhag , Head of Section, Swedish Migration Agency
	Introduction to the Conference: Sweden as a destination for international students	Lars Westbratt , State Secretary to the Minister for Justice and Migration, Swedish Government
	Panel I: Attracting and retaining international students in Sweden
	Policies to attract and retain international students – insights from a new EMN study	Bernd Parusel , Swedish Migration Agency
	Scholarships for international students	Johanna Jeppsson , Swedish Institute
	Academic mobility and Swedish scholarships: A study on alumni of the Swedish Institute's Visby Programme	Andreas Åkerlund , Associate Professor, Södertörn University
	Questions and answers
11:00 – 11:30	Coffee Break
11:30 – 12:30	Panel II: A comparative EMN perspective - Attraction and retention strategies in Germany and the Netherlands
	Case study Germany	Paula Hoffmeyer-Zlotnik , University of Geneva
	Case study Netherlands	Hanna van der Linden , Immigration and Naturalization Service, Netherlands
	Interactive discussion (30 minutes): What can Sweden, Germany and the Netherlands learn from each other?
12:30 – 13:30	Lunch
13:30 – 14:30	Panel III: Attracting and welcoming international students – the role of higher education institutions
	Attracting international students - Linköping University	Johanna Gistvik , International Office, Linköping University
	Attracting and retaining international students at Halmstad University	Ulf Ivarsson , Chancellery, Halmstad University
	International students at Lund University	Mikael Sundström , Faculty of Social Sciences, Lund University
	Questions and answers
14:30 – 15:00	Coffee Break
15:00 – 16:00	Panel IV: The experience of international students in Sweden	Essam Sharaf , Karolinska Institutet Anna Youngquist , KTH Royal Institute of Technology Katren Rogers , Lund university Angélica Jiménez Méndez , Stockholm School of Economics Nijat Eldarov , Lund university
	Summary and Outlook

About the EMN

The European Migration Network (EMN) is an EU funded network, set up with the aim of providing up-to-date, objective, reliable and comparable information on migration and asylum for Institutions of the European Union, plus authorities and institutions of the Member States of the EU, in order to inform policymaking. The EMN also serves to provide the wider public with such information. The EMN was established by the European Council Decision 2008/381/EC adopted on 14 May 2008. For further information:

EMN Sweden: www.emnsweden.se

EMN Europe: http://ec.europa.eu/dgs/home-affairs/what-we-do/networks/european_migration_network/index_en.htm

