		Wider Dissemination?	3. What is the most common reason Georgian citizens bring up when applying for the refugee status ?
	Austria	No	This EMN NCP has provided a response to the requesting EMN NCP. However, they have requested that their response is not disseminated further.
	Belgium	Yes	The fear of being persecuted for reason of nationality. In most cases this is related to the conflict in South Ossetia; e.g. problems finding their origin in the mixed marriage (Georgia- South Ossetia) of their parents.
	Czech Republic	Yes	There is no common reason given by the applicants. Consequences of the 2008 Russia–Georgia war and discontent with the present political regime are cited in several cases. Kurd nationality is not invoked, although there were such cases some 5 years ago.
	Estonia	Yes	It is difficult to generalise due to very small number of applicants, but mainly the reason is to legalise their stay in Estonia because they have family members living in Estonia. One person has applied for asylum due to persecution because of his political views.
	Finland	Yes	Georgian applicants have presented different claims for asylum – problems with state officials, member of a religious minority, conscientious objectors etc. These claims have, in general, proven to be false. See also above.
	Germany	Yes	The most common reason is political persecution by the state, because of the nationality.
	Hungary	Yes	There are 4 typical reasons: ethnic origin (minority origin), conflicts arising from mixed (Ossetian-Georgian or Abkhaz-Georgian) marriages, armed conflicts and membership in an opposite group/or support for this group. In the last years the first three reasons were the most common; however, recently the fourth reason was referred to in a lot of cases.
	Ireland	Yes	In regards to the above-mentioned Georgian applications in 2008 & 2009 (31/05), the most common reason for Asylum is Political.
	Italy	Yes	This information is not available
	Lithuania	Yes	General post-war situation (4); draft evasion (4); persecution on grounds of nationality (3).
	Malta	No	This EMN NCP has provided a response to the requesting EMN NCP. However, they have requested that their response is not disseminated further.
	Netherlands	Yes
	Poland	Yes	The fear of being persecuted for reason of nationality.

	Slovak Republic	Yes	The most common reasons are usually: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - general unfavourable conditions in Georgia, - fear of personal safety because of the tense situation, - conflict in South Ossetia, - members of the opposition parties allegedly persecuted by the state authorities, economic motives, connected often also with the reasons listed above
	Slovenia	Yes
	Spain	Yes
	Sweden	Yes	The fear of being persecuted for reason of ethnicity.
	United Kingdom	Yes	We have no data on this
